Ch-ch-ch-changes...

November proved to be a busy month after all. As the time changes, so do things here at DETC. After much thought and deliberation, I decided to move facilities. DETC is now located at Rocking A Ranch at 11135 Moreno Ave, just around the corner from where we used to be at ECEC. I am very excited about this move to a smaller, more personal atmosphere. Lessons and training have already begun at our new facility ☺

As the time changes and the light does too, our horses will become fuzzier and fuzzier... If you choose to body clip or blanket your horse, both services are available through DETC. Full body clips are $100.

Blanketing is also available through DETC for $40 for putting on and taking off your blanket, or $20 if you just need one or the other service (put on, or taken off). Let Darcy know what you need, and it'll be done!

We had a great time at the Arabian Community Show held on November 8 in Vista. Lots of blue ribbons and smiles were on our rider's faces! See pictures inside!! The PVRA Turkey Trot was the last show of the year for us at DETC. It was a blast as well and I have pictures inside for the show as well as some pictures. Many more fun days ahead for us next year!

I have included the start of the calendar for 2010. Our first shows in January are the Poway Open Show (24) and the Sierra Empire Arabian Horse Show (29-31). Sign ups for Poway are the day of, but the entries for Sierra Empire will be due January 4! Be sure to renew or join both the Arabian Horse Association and USEF to participate without added fees!! Make sure for AHA, you apply for the "Competition" card ☺

If there's rain in the forecast, please call ahead to ensure lessons are being held; hopefully we are done for rain for a while!

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, ideas or suggestions, feel free to let me know! Again, thank you all for your continued support of the Darcy Edwards Training Center!
